This property is located in a peaceful and scenic area, just 10 minutes below São Martinho das Amoreiras. It sits on a 1.9-hectare plot of land with a mixture of cork oaks, olive trees, and even an orange tree. The land also includes a flat area of approximately 1500m² with a water well.

The house is positioned at the top of the plot and has a registered area of 54.8m² , offering stunning views of the surrounding landscape. It has a new roof and electricity already installed, but the interior requires complete finishing to suit your needs and preferences.
At the bottom of the plot there is another building with a registered area of 41m², currently used as storage.

This property is in a great location, an hour's drive from the beautiful beaches of the West Coast or the Algarve, making it an ideal spot for those seeking both tranquility and easy access to amenities.
